

I want to express the disgust I feel for the decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the 2004 elections. It's distasteful and shocking that this company would choose to air this at all regardless of the time of year.

I don't want to see any more negative ads against our president, or against our elected officials. That is not what this country is about.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Thank you.
